Comments

Maremma - untouched nature, characterized by the Mediterranean Macchia. This is where the Costa family's TerrediFiori winery is located, and its name evokes the scents, colors and landscape of these hills. Each label represents a different wildflower of the region, such as the acanto. The best Sangiovese grapes from the estate in a cuvée with Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot and Petit Verdot, creating an elegant and complex wine that combines the scents, the sun and the creativity of the new company.

Pairing

Versatile companion to Mediterranean cuisine with pasta, meat, richly seasoned with herbs.

Tasting notes

Dark ruby red; smells wonderfully intense of wild red fruits, sour cherries and warm spices. Plus notes of undergrowth and dark tobacco. Juicy on the palate, well balanced, elegant and with velvety tannins and a spicy finish.
