Comments

"At the end of a path taken ten years ago, we present the new Barbaresco DOCG CN-111, obtained from the pure rosé clone whose scientific name is precisely CN-111. It is the fruit of our roots, adhering to the values of the Langa, and of the desire to tell the extraordinary potential of Nebbiolo in all its different declinations.

Pairing

An elegant accompaniment to roasted and braised meat, dishes with lamb and game or mature cheese.

Tasting notes

Rich ruby with cherry red reflections. Seductive, multi-layered nose. Sweet cherries, currants, some undergrowth, dried flowers, warm spices. Remarkable power, but wrapped in kid gloves. Robust, muscular tannins of the best quality. Well accentuated acidity. A powerful, aromatic body that lingers for a long time.
