Comments

Il Greppo is vinified in a very traditional way. The long maturation period in the wooden barrels gives the Brunello its complexity and multi-layeredness.

Pairing

Royal accompaniment to rich meat dishes, lamb, game and fine pasta dishes.

Tasting notes

Strong, typical nose, fine and harmonious, delicate vanilla tones. The taste is rich, warm and long-lasting, with great harmony and spiciness. Thanks to the perfect organoleptic properties and its long storage first in Slavonian oak barrels and then in the bottle, Brunello Biondi Santi is a particularly long-lived wine.
