Comments

The Rhône is very important for viticulture. It connects four wine-growing regions that are highly diverse in terms of climate, topography and grape varieties: the southern and northern Rhône, the area in the middle around the Drôme tributary and the area east of the southern Rhône.

Pairing

Lamb with light sauces

Tasting notes

This full-bodied garnet red wine enchants with an aroma of dried fruit, roasted notes of coffee and smoke as well as a hint of cherry and some vegetal notes. On the palate it is fresh, full-bodied and smooth, the harmonious structure and the long finish make it a lasting pleasure.
