Comments

The Chianti Classico producers have introduced a three-tier classification model. Above the vintage wine (Annata) and the Riserva, the Gran Selezione is now the crowning glory. The Gran Selezione is made from the grapes of the best vineyards of a winery, according to strict rules and even stricter controls.

Pairing

Excellent with fish, poultry or seafood.

Tasting notes

Golden yellow color with light green reflections, the bouquet has scents of white flowers and delicate fruits. Generous in the body with exotic fruit aromas and a hint of nutty components.
