Comments

The vines, laid out as if in a natural amphitheatre, grow on excellent clay and stone soils. The low fertility of these soils leads to great characteristics and complexity in terms of the fruit of the grapes. The grapes of the Cifra grow on the highest and most nutrient-rich site of the estate, which is made for Cabernet Franc.

Pairing

Goes well with game, red meat, mature cheese.

Tasting notes

Deep ruby red with purple reflections, inviting nose with aromas of ripe red cherries, herbs, elegant notes of tobacco and cedar. An excellent wine with an unmistakable character, velvety tannins and a nice freshness.
