Comments

With its velvety smooth taste and unmistakable aroma, Disaronno is the world's most drunk Italian liqueur.

Pairing

Whether pure on the rocks, irresistible with fruit juices, refined and stimulating with vodka, rum and whiskey - Disaronno is a unique experience that appeals to all the senses.

Tasting notes

Intense, long-lasting fragrance that persists even after the addition of ice. Soft, intense, sweet in the beginning, in the finish with traces of almonds and cherries accompanied by notes of vanilla and caramel.
