Comments

The fully ripe grapes are completely destemmed and then subjected to a long maceration period before twelve-day fermentation begins. The wine is stored in second-filled French barriques for six months before being bottled.

Tasting notes

Ruby red color. This red wine captivates with aromas of ripe red cherries, blueberries and cassis as well as some licorice and Mediterranean herbs. Dry on the palate with soft tannins and balanced acidity. A wonderful drinking flow and the lingering finish round off the enjoyment experience.
