Comments

This great Berta Grappa comes from Piedmont, one of the most important and important wine-growing regions in Italy. This area is known worldwide for its fine and traditional wines and the grappa varieties do not have to hide. The high quality of the grapes is guaranteed by the winegrowers, who cultivate their land with great love and produce such first-class grapes as the Barbera variety.

Pairing

After a meal or just to enjoy.

Tasting notes

The finest notes of nutmeg and raisins resonate with the typical Barbera taste. The finish of the Stravecchi DiLidia is slightly sweet and pleasant.
