Comments

The cult wine Antinoris, harvested and vinified on the Tignanello estate, shows the unmistakable Tuscan identity. A very intense, highly complex red wine that expresses the character of its grape varieties in a wonderfully balanced way. A classic for connoisseurs and collectors with potential for appreciation.

Pairing

Meat and game dishes and good cheese. But it can also be enjoyed as a meditation wine.

Tasting notes

Deep, impenetrable ruby violet. Dense and intense nose, smells of ripe, dark currants, blackberries and brown bread crust, some liquorice in the background. Very clear and precise on the palate, opens with many fine-meshed, dense tannins, builds up full, nice game, very long finish in the finish.
