Comments

The Marche's greatest treasure is the white Verdicchio, which only grows here and is now one of the most important white wine grapes in Italy. Verdicchio is always matured in a pure variety, depending on the type, in steel tanks, in large wooden barrels or in barriques.

Pairing

Goes well with fish, seafood or even poultry.

Tasting notes

Intense yellow; on the nose notes of ripe exotic fruits, sweet melons and lychee. Round and flattering at the start, elegant balance, balancing minerality. A very pleasant acidity on the finish.
