Comments

This is where the potential of the ancient autochthonous grape varieties, which has not been used for many years, comes to the fore. If you've never heard of "Gaglioppo" for example, then prepare to be surprised. The production of this wine is unique as it is matured in chestnut barrels from the winery's own winery.

Pairing

Ideal with grilled meat and game.

Tasting notes

Full-bodied, round, soft on the palate with fine-grained tannins - very accessible; strong, finesse finish.
