Comments

A small hand-picked selection of grapes from the Montepulciano Villa Gemma harvest is vinified in steel tanks with long maceration and then aged for 2 years in a single French oak barrel

Pairing

Braised beef, ossobuco or boeuf bourguignon, grillade

Tasting notes

A flavour of deep and rich fruit and lots of spicy character. The body is full, very dense and powerful, the drink is rich and juicy thanks to the great freshness and a spicy background that makes it exciting. A wine for ageing that holds great surprises over the years.
