Comments

The Villa Gemma line. The company's flagship is the line that best embodies the style and taste of winemaker Gianni Masciarelli. The Montepulciano D'Abruzzo Villa Gemma Rosso shows an unprecedented interpretation of these great autochthonous vines. Next to it in the same line are the two fresher and lighter wines Villa Gemma Bianco and Villa Gemma Cerasuolo, as if trying to balance the immense complexity of Montepulciano a little.

Pairing

Goes well with cold cuts, goulash and Cantonese duck.

Tasting notes

Deep ruby red. Refined bouquet, complex and intense. Elegant notes of red fruits, cherries and currants with gentle tobacco aromas on the palate.
