Comments

An elegant Cabernet Franc from the high-altitude Uco Valley, offering plenty of freshness and spice, with a distinctive character typical of the Andean region.

Pairing

It goes perfectly with beef, lamb, game dishes, grilled vegetables and mature hard cheese.

Tasting notes

Intense aromas of blackcurrants, ripe cherries and plums, accompanied by subtle hints of herbs, pepper and tobacco. Well-balanced on the palate, with juicy fruit, well-integrated tannins and a long, harmonious finish.
