Comments

"Colpo di Zappa is a wine inspired by the territory to which it belongs, close to our traditions and yet so different from the landscapes we are used to. A Primitivo di Gioia del Colle that revives an ancient winemaking tradition and refers to an important contemporary style that faithfully respects the aromatic heritage of the vine."

Pairing

Grilled meat or a hearty "pasta al forno", but also mature cheeses go well with this classic.

Tasting notes

An intense ruby red color appears in the glass, exuding delicate floral scents and pronounced notes of spices. In fact, the fresh and wild scent of the violet combines with the spicy notes of the carnation flowers and the minerality of the stone with clear hints of black cherry and plum. On the palate, it opens with elegance and balance, rediscovering the same olfactory qualities, supported by an acid shoulder that gives the wine a pleasant dynamism, a full body and well-integrated tannins that are never intrusive.
