Comments

Vigna Laura is located in the town of Verzella in the municipality of Castiglione di Sicilia. It consists of two early 19th century vineyards of Nerello Mascalese and Nerello Cappuccio with Etna trees at a density of 9,000 plants per hectare.

Pairing

Grilled or roasted pork or lamb; grilled vegetables; pasta dishes.

Tasting notes

The Vigna Laura impresses purely visually with its ruby red color. The olfactory palette ranges from red flowers and oriental spices to ripe raspberries and cherries. The Laura glides smoothly along the palate and forms a long finish with fine tannins. Its balance makes this wine incredibly elegant and light. A very convincing idea.
