Comments

This property belongs to the descendants of Doctor Ernest Raymond, an important doctor in the region. He recommended that his patients take a refreshing dip in the River Forestay. The wells dug into the limestone cliffs by the river provided patients with natural baths that were perfect for this purpose.

Pairing

As an aperitif: With cumin bricelets, flutes, tomme fleurette, hummus toast, guacamole or wild garlic pesto.

Tasting notes

lively, refreshing opening meets the scent of white flowers and lemon notes. The slim, elegant body brings a citrus fruit mix and shows a light mineral note. A wine full of finesse that brings a carefree touch to everyday life.
