Comments

The grapes for this prestigious Sylvaner come from the sun-drenched vineyards around Säben Abbey, the 'Acropolis of Tyrol'. Strict selection, uncompromising yield reduction and gentle vinification in acacia wood barrels give this wine its unmistakable character.

Pairing

With starters, fish dishes, asparagus, white meat and as an aperitif

Tasting notes

Colour: greenish yellow to light yellow. Aroma: elegant, fresh and fruity, with mineral and earthy notes reminiscent of peaches and green apples. Taste: fresh and robust, with lively acidity and a long finish.
