Comments

Terre Brune, for decades now the flagship and prestige wine of Cantina Santadi and showered with awards. Of course, this wine also receives the greatest attention because the oenologist for it is also the most famous of all Italian star oenologists, the famous Giacomo Tachis.

Pairing

Excellent with well-seasoned roasts, grilled meat, game with herbs and herb cheese.

Tasting notes

The bouquet is a unique interplay of dark berries, raw meat and the finest dark chocolate. At the moment it only opens up on the palate when paired with a good steak. The beef absorbs some of the tannin, making the wine more accessible and aromatic. It has an incredibly firm, taut structure and is bursting with strength.
