Comments

story of the heart... Homage to these women who came in the 1950s to work in our vineyards every season. From mothers to daughters, they still carry with them a joyful chaos that disturbs the Swiss tranquility. Geh Giù Begn is the spirit of Italian hospitality, of the generosity of the mountains, a wine of spontaneity, served to friends and strangers alike.

Pairing

Fantastic with fish... or at the end of the meal with a fruit tart!

Tasting notes

Round, comfortable opening with the scent of crushed strawberries, candied morello cherries and mirabelle plums. The middle is tasty like fruit juice and the tannic finish frees the palate of any sweetness. A contrasting, playful wine that surprisingly hovers between liqueur and fruit coulis.
