This reserve was dedicated to the centenary of the Gruner Distillery (1915 ~ 2015), it was only produced in limited quantities and in a new bottle, especially for the occasion. Its long preparation involves the infusion of numerous herbs, flowers and Fruits from Calabria, following ancient traditional methods and using valuable batches of Old Brandy from wine barrels made from Slavonian oak barrels and stored for decades in aging warehouses under the control of the Italian State. Il Vecchio Amaro del Capo Riserva 100J. It was then further aged in oak barrels in order to achieve maximum harmony between all its components, thus becoming a unique product to be able to enjoy it in the best occasions, in the premise of the most demanding connoisseurs. A unique and refined liqueur that distinguishes Italy among the most appreciated liqueurs.
