Comments

This special organic Verdicchio is dedicated to Stefano's father, Nicola Antonucci, also called Arnaldo by his friends. Gentle destemming and natural maceration on the skins until the end of fermentation in steel. Native yeasts and no filtration make it an authentic but rebellious expression of the Verdicchio grape. A wine that is unique both through its special processing and the profound thought from which it was created.

Pairing

The pure Verdicchio is a delight with more substantial starters and fish dishes.

Tasting notes

The natural cloudiness results from the lack of filtering and the natural sediment smell. Complex and fascinating nose, herbal scents alternate with ethereal scents Taste. In the mouth like a small miracle, dry, direct, strong and at the same time full-bodied. The sparkling freshness is combined with a clear minerality and light tannin content, which gives the wine a powerful note.
