Tasting notes

With the Crizia Vermentino di Gallura, a first-class white wine comes into the glass. Here he shows a wonderfully brilliant, light yellow color. The first nose of the Vermentino di Gallura shows notes of grapefruit, lime and lemon. The fruity aspects of the bouquet are joined by forest soil and rocks warmed by the sun. The texture of this light-footed white wine is wonderfully light on the palate. Due to its fruity acidity, the Vermentino di Gallura reveals itself wonderfully fresh and lively on the palate. In the finish, this storable white wine from Sardinia inspires with its considerable length. Once again there are hints of pomelo and grapefruit. Mineral notes from the soil, which is dominated by clay, join in the aftertaste.
