The history, development and creation of the Botanical Garden and the passion for our country has given us a fascinating new project. Two bitters were born, which revolve around the following topics everyday life in our society Rural and agricultural society, the botanicals are coming from plots 343/300 Martorano and 674 Bisignano. For the first time we are proud to have pride on the label, the identity signature of the Trombino & Söhne family. Washington Amaro made with oranges and herbs Amaricanti is aimed at an increasingly increasingly demanding public, passionate about our way of drinking. Ingredients: Orange Washington, bitter orange, sweet orange, lemon, grapefruit, enula root, chiretta, coriander.

Tasting notes

When tasting it surprises with its bitter charge. Original in mixtures, in the great classic among aperitifs, it enhances the bitter side of oranges.
