The history, the development and the creation of the Botanical Garden and the passion for our country has led us to a fascinating new project. Two bitters were born, which revolve around the following topics everyday life in our society Rural farming society, the botanicals are coming from plots 343/300 Martorano and 674 Bisignano. For the first time we are proud to proudly present on the label, the identity signature of the Trombino & Sons family. Orange and Herb Washington Amaro Amaricanti is aimed at an increasingly discerning public who are passionate about our way of drinking. Ingredients: Orange Washington, Bitter Orange, Sweet Orange, Lemon, Grapefruit, Enula Root, Chiretta, Coriander.

Tasting notes

At the tasting it surprises with its bitter charge. Original in blends, in the great classic among the aperitifs, it enhances the bitter side of the oranges.
