Comments

The Alpine region of Trentino-South Tyrol is undoubtedly the symbol of the Italian mountains. The Dolzan family has been carrying on the tradition of distilling in this wonderful environment for over 170 years, paying great attention and respect to nature and the ancient ways of working in the mountains, such as growing rye at high altitudes.

Pairing

After a meal or just to enjoy.

Tasting notes

Aroma of great finesse and intensity, with an exceptional personal style. Pleasantly characterized by floral notes of roses and fruity citrus fruits. A taste of exceptional aromatic richness, round, velvety, soft, with fruity notes of mango, banana, grapes
